Programme Overview:

The primary objective of the Diploma in Leadership is to ensure you become an effective leader in your organisation. This programme will teach you the skills you need to lead yourself and others. It will develop your understanding of the different styles of leadership as well as determining your style and its effectiveness. It will enable you to describe and develop the strategies that capitalise on your strengths and overcome any weaknesses for yourself and your business.

Programme Outcomes:

On completion of this programme, participants will be able to:

- Identify your personal strengths and weaknesses as a leader.
- Understand the different styles of leadership.
- Understand personality and how it affects leadership and behaviour in organisations.
- Improve your skills in assertiveness, be clearer about objectives and time management skills and make decisions with confidence.
- Build strong relationships internal and external to the organisation.
- Deal more effectively with power and politics in the organisation and lead teams more effectively.
- Understand how to 'read' a culture.
- Recognise and practise active listening.
- Practice giving and receiving feedback effectively.

Who Should Attend?

The programme is designed to meet the needs of those leading teams or departments in the organisation. Therefore, those attending should currently occupy leadership roles or expect to move into leadership positions where they are responsible for others within the team or organisation.

Programme Assessment:

Individual assessments are an integral part of the programme and count towards end of year results as follows:

- 1) Closed book exam 35%
- 2) Project (3,500 - 5,000 words) 35%
- 3) Learning journal and class participation 30%
