Programme Overview:

The primary objective of Ibec's Managing People Programme is to enable front-line managers to make a more effective contribution to the organisation by developing core skills central to managing people at work.

Programme Outcomes:

On completion of this programme, participants will:

- Understand and appreciate the full extent and importance of your role in managing people
- Improve your interpersonal skills to enable you to deal more effectively with people at all levels within the organisation and act with greater confidence
- Acquire the key tools for managing people through a practical approach to skills development in such areas as motivation, managing problem behaviours, counselling, assertiveness and negotiations.
- Develop an appreciation of grievance and disciplinary procedures and improve your effectiveness in handling issues in these areas.
- Gain an overview of the key areas of employment legislation and become more confident when dealing with queries in relation to these.
